INVESTMENT RATIONALE:

Equities (shares) as a long term investment: Although investing in equities (shares) involves a degree of investment risk and there will be volatile periods along the way, in the long term, equities tend to outperform other assets like bonds, property, cash etc. By adopting a medium term approach, equity investors can mitigate the risks and short term volatility associated with stock market investment while benefiting from the long term capital growth potential that stock markets can provide.

Stock Market Indices provide a broad representative portfolio of investments in multiple companies or shares. Indexes are often used as benchmarks to gauge the movement and performance of market segments or geographic regions. Investors generally use Indexes as a basis for diverse or passive investing. The S&P 500 Index is a Benchmark Index of US shares.

The All Weather feature of the Bond allows investors the opportunity to benefit from the positive or negative performance of the S&P 500 Index within the +/-34% Barriers and even pays a 7.5% Rebate Return if the Index performance is outside the +/-34% Barriers.
